SAFETY SLIDE

CONTEXT SLIDE 1

The Constitution (130th Amendment) Bill, 2025 proposes that the Prime Minister, Chief Ministers, or any Union or State minister automatically lose office if detained for more than 30 consecutive days on charges carrying a minimum five-year sentence, and this rule applies at both Union and State levels, including Delhi under Article 239AA.

CONTEXT SLIDE 2

Key Provisions of this bill include -

(1) Removal Before Conviction: Cessation of office occurs even without a court conviction.

(2) A 30-Day Timeline: Automatic removal is triggered on the 31st day of continuous detention.

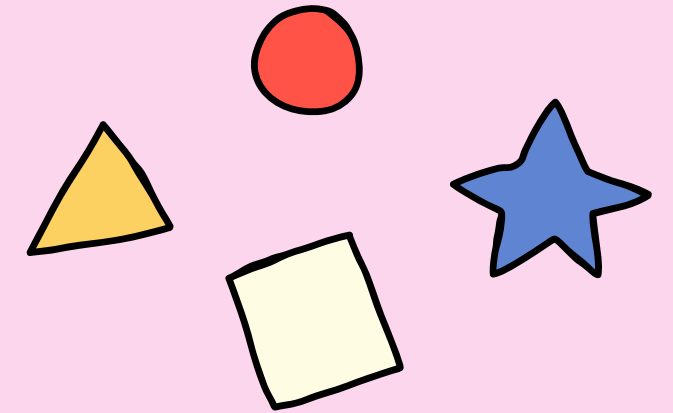

(3) Reappointment Allowed: A minister may be reappointed after release or if bail is secured.
